DIRECTOR'S NOTES

A show can enter your life at just the right time. It speaks to you and your life situation as if it were written to guide you. For me, Joseph And The Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat is such a show. I first saw it when I was in my thirties. The anachronistic joy of the songs appealed to my restless self. I have since directed the musical twice - once in my forties and once in my fifties. It spoke to me differently each time. It didn't change – so I must have. Now as I look ahead to my 72nd birthday [August 26], Joseph is back in my life and making me think about all things I have done, am doing, and still hope to do. Enjoy our production.

It may be just what you need at this time in your journey.

There will be a 15-minute intermission between acts. Smoking is not permitted in the theater or barn except when designated by the director.

No photography or video taping is permitted during the performance.

Out of courtesy to the cast and audience, please turn off all communication devices.
